MAJOR GENERAL GREGORY KNIGHT

Each year, the Vermont Chamber of Commerce honors an outstanding Vermonter as the “Citizen of the Year.” This award is presented to the individual who has made major contributions to the betterment of Vermont; has been distinguished through outstanding service to their community and region; and typifies the true spirit of service and self-sacrifice in representing the finest ideals of Vermont citizenship.

The Vermont Chamber is proud to present the 2025 Citizen of the Year Award to Major General Gregory Knight. Maj. Gen. Gregory Knight is a lifelong Huntington resident and the current Adjutant General of the Vermont National Guard. With 40 years of uniformed service—13 years enlisted and 27 years as a commissioned officer—he began his career with the U.S. Coast Guard before transitioning to Vermont law enforcement and advancing his military service with both the Vermont Air and Army National Guards until his election in 2019. Under his leadership, the Guard has responded to historic floods, supported Vermonters during the COVID-19 pandemic, and prioritized inclusivity.
